Sunny and the Sleepy Wombat

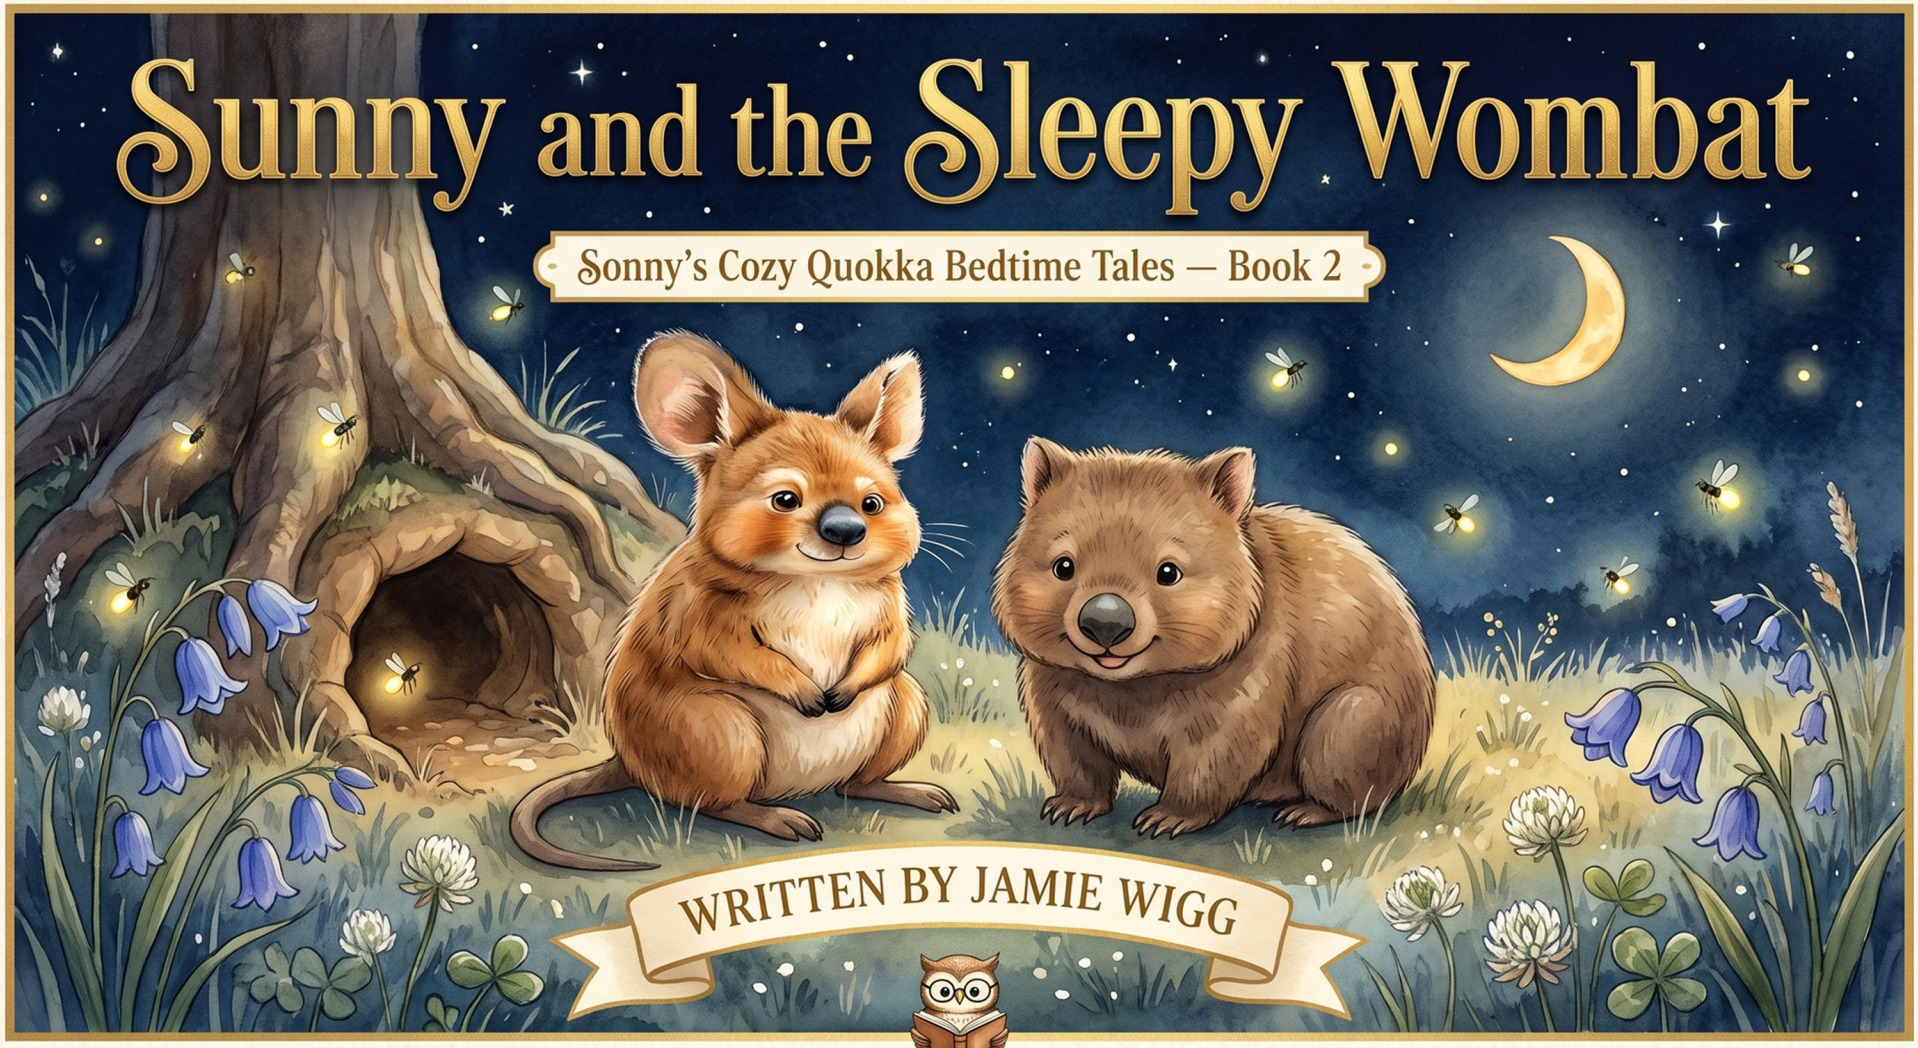
Sonny's Cozy Quokka Bedtime Tales — Book 2



WRITTEN BY JAMIE WIGG

The bush grew quiet as the sun slipped away.
Sunny sat in the soft grass, watching the first stars.

A rustle came from the tangled roots nearby.
Out trundled a round little wombat, slow and sleepy.

He had a wide flat nose and stubby little legs,
and fur the colour of warm brown earth.

“Hello,” said Sunny. “Where are you going?”

“Home to my burrow,” the wombat yawned, “to sleep.”

He showed her a round little door,
tucked snugly beneath the old gum-tree roots.

Inside it was warm and dark and soft,
lined with dry grass and fallen leaves.

“It’s so cosy,” Sunny whispered.
“The best place to close your eyes,” said the wombat.

They sat and watched the moon climb high,
round and golden over the sleepy bush.

Fireflies drifted by like tiny lanterns,
blinking soft and slow in the warm night air.

The wombat gave a great big sleepy yawn.
“Goodnight, little Sunny,” he said, and went inside.

Sunny found her own soft patch of grass,
and curled up warm beneath the whispering leaves.

The bush breathed slow and gentle all around.
Everything was still, and safe, and quiet.

Her eyes grew heavy as the stars looked down.
One slow blink… then another… then one more.

And Sunny drifted off beneath the moon,
as snug and safe as the wombat in his burrow.

Goodnight, Sunny. Goodnight, little wombat.
Goodnight, sleepy bush. Goodnight, little one.

About the Series

Sonny's Cozy Quokka Bedtime Tales are gentle, rhythmic stories made to help little ones wind down and drift off to sleep. In every book, Sunny the little quokka meets a new Australian animal friend, shares a calm moment together, and settles in for the night — ending, as always, with a peaceful goodnight. With soft hand-painted watercolour art on every page and soothing read-aloud words, they are perfect for nap time and bedtime with children ages 1–5.
