

Sonny's Cozy Quokka

Bedtime Tales

Snuggle in,
dream big,
and let the adventure begin!

One morning, Sunny woke up and noticed something different. The big old

Warm burnt orange. A soft, gentle red, like the colour of the setting

Sunny watched it spin and twirl, this way and that, until it settled softly

And another. Until the air was full of leaves drifting down like quiet

He didn't need to go anywhere. He just needed to be right here, in this

He looked at it for a long, quiet moment. Then he curled up beside it,

Sweet dreams!

See you next time, little one ☐
