

Sonny's Cozy Quokka

Bedtime Tales

Snuggle in,
dream big,
and let the adventure
begin!

The song started very quietly. Sunny was already nearly asleep

She could not see the bird. She looked and looked — into the high

It was the most peaceful sound Sunny had ever heard. Not joyful

The note came and came and came — steady and gentle as a heartbeat.

The song went on. Sunny's breathing slowed to match
it. In with the rising

The bird sang on until the first pale light of morning. Goodnight,

Sweet dreams!

See you next time, little one ☐
