

Sonny's Cozy Quokka

Bedtime Tales

Snuggle in,
dream big,
and let the adventure begin!

The cold made the stars sharper. On warm nights the stars were soft, but

There were so many. More than usual. The Milky Way was there — a wide smear

Her breath came out in a small cloud. She thought:
winter is cold but it

The grass was cold below her. The stars were brilliant above her. In

She found the pattern of stars she always looked for first — four of them

Goodnight, Sunny.
Goodnight, winter stars.
Goodnight, little one.

Sweet dreams!

See you next time, little one ☐
